

VIDIZMO Solves The Challenge Of Dallas County Texas For Live Stream Monitoring & Video Content Management

Dallas County, located in the state of Texas, USA, the second-most populous county of the state and the ninth-most populous across the United States. Dallas County's election department faced a significant challenge in ensuring transparency in the electoral process. They needed a solution that could help them easily monitor live streams of multiple rounds of their balloting process on polling days and store and manage tens of thousands of hours of video content effectively.

VIDIZMO, a Gartner recognized Enterprise Video Content Management System (EVCMS) is a platform for video streaming and content management that provides organizations with a secure, powerful, and easy-to-use, branded enterprise video streaming platform that empowers departments across organizations to store, encode, manage, and share independently to both internal and external audiences as well as conduct live streaming of video content and make them available as on-demand.

This is an Anonymized Case Study

The Actual Identity of Our Customer may or may not be disclosed to you
Later in the Buying Process

Click or Scan For Overview

VIDIZMO EnterpriseTube

Customer Challenges

The challenge faced by Dallas County was to ensure transparency by monitoring live streams during multiple rounds of balloting in the electoral process, and to provide public visibility.

Additionally, as part of this process, they also needed to store and manage thousands of hours of video content.

VIDIZMO Solution

VIDIZMO EnterpriseTube provides a secure platform, and easy-to-use, branded enterprise video streaming platform for uploading, processing, and storage of digital content. VIDIZMO EnterpriseTube offered live streaming functionality that allowed Dallas County election department to conduct live streaming of their election procedure as well as enables them to monitor multiple rounds of balloting process to ensure transparency in the election procedure.

Additionally, VIDIZMO helps them easily manage Tens of Thousands of hours of video content and effectively search and retrieve through filters, categories, tags, or custom defined attribute.

Moreover, VIDIZMO EnterpriseTube is scalable for different streaming licenses that can be added in the platform as per the user requirements.

Key Features

VIDIZMO offers the capability to schedule live events, which can be recorded and published as on-demand content available for playback later.

VIDIZMO offers an analytics dashboard for greater visibility on how your content is being consumed and in what areas you can improve it.

VIDIZMO provides easy access and playback for videos and digital content using any kind of device or under any bandwidth conditions.

VIDIZMO's AI allows you to automatically generate insights and tags, and accurate transcriptions with translations in multiple languages, for better indexing and search.

Contact Us:

 +1 571 -989-2180

 sales@vidizmo.com

 www.vidizmo.com

Learn more:

 www.vidizmo.com/evp